5. [redacted] Briefed Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, on two major failures in the Soviet space program and the promising initial performance of a sensitive Agency project. 25X1C
I provided Woodruff with a breakdown of the figures for operations
[redacted]

In discussing Chairman Ellender's plans for the community Defense budget, Woodruff commented that the testimony of Admiral Gayler in defense of NSA has not gone over at all well. He said Chairman Ellender remained determined to make substantial cuts in the budgets

25X1A

I explained to Woodruff the line we had taken reviewing for publication the transcripts [redacted] emphasizing that we had steadfastly opposed any reference to Agency involvement with [redacted]

25X1C

Woodruff feels there is an even or better chance that some form of the Symington amendment limiting U.S. expenditures in Laos to [redacted] for FY 72 would pass the Senate. 25X1

6. [redacted] Briefed Ralph Preston, of the House Appropriations Committee staff, on two recent Soviet space failures and promising initial performance of a sensitive Agency project.

In response to my question, Preston said he thought the House would welcome, and follow along with, major cuts in the community Defense budget advocated by Senator Ellender.

25X1

7. [redacted] Met with Senator Peter Dominick (R., Colo.) of the Agency's Armed Services Subcommittee, and briefed him on two recent Soviet space failures and status of Soviet ICBM silos.

8. [redacted] Briefed Russ Blandford, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, on two recent Soviet space failures and promising initial performance of a sensitive Agency project.

1. [REDACTED] Talked to Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, regarding legislation for the future of our Radios--he sees no problem in getting House approval of the Senate bill for handling them under a continuing resolution until 6 August.

25X1

2. [REDACTED] Discussed the Radios problem with Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, who says he thinks the bill for taking care of the Radios under a continuing resolution will survive in the Senate, but he is not at all sure of the long-term future of the Radios. He feels they cannot survive indefinitely in an "open environment" in the face of present congressional economy drives.

25X1

3. [REDACTED] Discussed with Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, problems created by the Symington amendment 25X1A and pointed out that programs in which the Agency is involved, both in its own

Braswell asked me to provide him with a breakdown of our figures on both our own programs and the programs we are helping to handle with DOD.

4. [REDACTED] Pat Holt, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called to request a briefing [REDACTED] and I asked [REDACTED] to arrange it with [REDACTED] of OCI. 25X6

5. every way possible, but I couldn't guarantee the results. Woodruff said that if we gave any ground on this we would be letting down our Subcommittee members in the Senate, who would find themselves in an extremely embarrassing position with their colleagues if it became known that they had been privy to these arrangements from the outset.

He said he wouldn't so much just blame this on the Agency, but now that Russell was gone people like Young, Ellender, Stennis, and Mahon would be "crucified" if their complicity in these sensitive arrangements were publicized.

Referring to the Symington amendment, Woodruff said he thought this had a good chance of passing and he would advise Ellender and Young not to 25X1C "get out on a limb" in fighting this one. I explained to Woodruff the amount [REDACTED]

6. [REDACTED] Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, said Senator Stennis was much interested in references in the current press revelations about our Vietnam involvement to a certain National Intelligence Estimate of several years ago. Braswell said that, according to the press, this Estimate had minimized the strategic effectiveness of bombings of North Vietnam and had tended to discount the domino theory--views which Senator Stennis himself had also shared. I told Braswell I would look into the matter and let him know what the Estimate had said. Braswell indicated the Chairman would no doubt like to see the Estimate himself, to which I made no response.

Braswell asked if the Director's congressional briefings during the period in question had expressed skepticism regarding the effectiveness of the bombings or the validity of the domino theory. I said I would have to check the record in order to answer.

After checking with Mr. Robert Dockery, the staff man handling S. 1936, Mr. Kuhl told me that the bill has not been included as yet in the agenda for the next Executive Session. It is apparently Mr. Dockery's feeling that with the passage of the continuing resolution by the Senate Appropriations Committee on Friday with provisions for funding of the Radios that the matter has been resolved for the present in that the resolution will probably be continued after 6 August indefinitely as needed. 3. [redacted] Called William Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, who said he had received from OMB late last evening the language which it was agreed would be placed in the Continuing Resolution to appropriate funds to USIA for interim financing of the Radios. This had been worked out between Woodruff, Clark MacGregor (of the White House) and James Frey (of OMB). Woodruff pointed out that he had an absolute agreement with OMB that there would be no further CIA funding of the Radios. He also said that the duration of the Continuing Resolution is through 6 August 1971.

4. [redacted] George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, called and asked for information on the relative comparisons of various computers including the ICL-1906A. 1. [REDACTED] Received a call from Miss Nicholson, 25X1A in the office of Senator John L. McClellan (D., Ark.) who requested a personnel interview for a [REDACTED]. After checking with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Office of Personnel, I advised Miss Nicholson that an appointment had been made for this afternoon, 24 June 1971 at 2:00 p.m. 25X1A

2. [REDACTED] Talked to David Abshire, Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Relations, and drew his attention to the Resolutions of Inquiry introduced by Representatives Paul McCloskey and Bella Abzug raising questions of concern to the Agency. I said we plan to take no action, since Frank Slatinshek, Assistant Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, had assured me Chairman Hebert would "take care of" the Abzug resolution, and since the McCloskey resolutions were addressed only to the Secretary of State. Abshire said that someone in his office was handling the matter and he would get in touch with us if necessary.

Mr. Abshire said that he had talked to Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, who advised strongly against the Secretary of State appealing to Senator Ellender regarding the Radios. Woodruff said he thought this would be counterproductive. He added that the President had twice considered calling Senator Ellender directly but had decided against doing so because he had no assurances that his call would be successful. In view of this, Abshire said it appeared the only solution was the "USIA solution" and he was still hopeful that the necessary legislation to cover this could be passed in time. He said Clark MacGregor and George Shultz were going to see Senator Ellender this afternoon to try to clear the way for this solution.

[REDACTED] I made clear to him that we were not advocating the release of any of this information but were merely stressing our concern on those areas of the most serious sensitivity to us. I told him that the final decision on this would be made at the White House level and we would be delighted if it was decided that all references to CIA should be excluded. Woodruff seemed to accept this although it is clear that he advocates a hard-line position on this subject.

I said that while we would prefer to see all references to the Agency eliminated from the published record, we felt this would be an impossible position to take under the circumstances and were concentrating on those references in the discussion involving the more sensitive aspects of Agency activities in Indochina. Braswell (who was present during that Senate session) said he thought we were wise in taking this approach.
